Even a casual reading of Scripture reveals that striving for a life of purity is important to God. Unfortunately, purity of life is often presented as a burden to be born. It's almost as if a pure life is synonymous with a life devoid of joy and pleasure, when nothing could be further from the truth. A life of purity flows out of intimacy with Jesus. The closer I am to Jesus, the closer I want to be with Jesus. The desire for greater intimacy with Christ motivates me to remove from my life all that will hinder that intimacy with Him. This results in a life defined by integrity and purity, and will bring glory to our loving Creator.

Let the Peace

*of God rule in your hearts,
to the which also ye are
called in one body;
And be ye thankful.*
